

CNEHA's 2017 annual meeting will be held at the Sheraton Portsmouth Harborside Hotel and Conference Center in historic Portsmouth, New Hampshire, on November 10-12, 2017. The theme for this year, "Taverns, Transportation and Trade," is in keeping with Portsmouth's nearly 400-year-old role as the center of commerce, travel and industry in the Piscataqua region. Individual papers, sessions and posters on this theme, and on others related to historical archaeology of the Northeast are welcome.

Abstracts should be no more than 150 words and clearly describe the purpose of the research, the significance of the work and summary of the results. Papers are limited to 20 minutes. All abstracts must be submitted by July 15, 2017. All lead author(s) presenter(s) must be a current member of CNEHA and register for the conference when presenting their abstract. Please submit appropriate conference registration fee with your abstract. Students should include a copy of their student ID.
