CNEHA's 2015 annual meeting will be held at the Courtyard by Marriott hotel in historic, downtown Fredericksburg, Virginia from November 6th through the 8th. The theme for this year's conference is Recover, Restore and Remember, a phrasing designed to capture Fredericksburg's history as a crossroads during numerous significant events in American history, most notably the Civil War. Conference organizers are Dovetail Cultural Resource Group and the Center for Historic Preservation at the University of Mary Washington.

Individual papers and sessions, as well as posters, on this and other themes related to historical archaeology are welcome. Abstracts should be no more than 150 words and include a title, author(s), and affiliation. Abstracts should clearly describe the research's purpose and significance, while summarizing the project's results. Papers are limited to 20 minutes. Each session will include a closing, five-minute question and answer period.

Deadline for abstract submission is Wed '37.'4237. Please send your abstract as an e-mail attachment with the following information to the Conference Program Chair, Douglas Sanford, at dsanford@umw.edu. Hard copy submittals containing this form and an abstract can be sent to Dr. Sanford at the Department of Historic Preservation, University of Mary Washington, 1301 College Avenue, Fredericksburg, VA 22401. Please email Dr. Sanford with questions. He can also be reached at 540-654-1314.
